Functional Decomposition Diagram

Functional Decomposition Diagram (FDD) is individual functions and sub-functions of a process or system can be graphically displayed in a hierarchical order as a functional decomposition diagram, which shows how the various functions are organized.

Figure No: Functional Decomposition Diagram